Two other members of the force were thought partly responsible as well, but their responsibility rests only in the fact that there was some delay in the escape being reported, and they have been disciplined accordingly.

THE CHANGES IN THE POLICE DEPARTMENT.

While the changes that have been made in the police department may be not acceptable at once to those who, without full knowledge of the conditions which existed in police circles but knowing the many engaging qualities of the ex-chief, pledged themselves unconditionally to his support, it must be apparent by now to even Mr. Carpenter's most urgent friends that there was need of a rearrangement at police headquarters. Day by day the stories were coming to light of incidents and circumstances which demonstrated beyond the shadow of doubt that things were not as they should have been and that so far as the ex-chief was concerned the situation had already gotten out of hand. These stories were by no means the figment of enemies of the ex-chief, but rather against the personally against him as a man, but rather against the department as an institution over which he presided; in fact, there are apparently none who would do him harm unless it be, unintentionally, his over-zealous friends. On the contrary, the stories which demonstrated an undesirable condition at police headquarters were all a matter of record, brought out, very largely, by the newspapers which now protest against a change and corroborated specifically and categorically by the ex-chief's friends in their endeavor to persuade the council that they were better judges than the commission board of who should be chief of police.

All these things have already been shown: mysterious deaths, untraced murders, strange escapes, the presence in the city of a very large class of undesirables with the attendant purse-snatching, cocaine-vending, safe-cracking, house-breaking and every manifestation of a lack of control by the police. Summed up, they must be recognized as a problem facing the new administration, and with this problem on their hands and the obligation to find a solution the mayor and commissioners proceed along the line which common-sense dictates, by replacing the man under whose tenure these things have been brought about with another whom they no doubt have reason to believe can make good.

Whether the new man makes good or not is something which remains to be seen. He is by no means a stranger, and his record in the past is a criterion by which his chances of making good may be judged. In the meantime, Mr. Lancelotti is acting chief, and it is up to him and Mr. Booth. The statistics and developments of the next month or two should furnish the evidence of their capacity, or otherwise, as the case may be. In the meantime the mayor, Commissioner Booth and Acting-Chief Lancelotti have made it unqualifiedly plain that the attempt from a certain quarter to make it appear that they were predisposed toward an open town is plain slander. To all who understand the situation it must be evident that it is their intention and their desire to bring about a better tone in police matters, and no fair-minded citizen will attempt to deny them the chance to do so.

WOMEN IN OFFICE AND HUMAN VALUES.

Anent the claim of the equal suffragists that women are naturally the most competent judges in question of human values, have you been noticing how women have been coming to the front on the other side of the line recently in departments having to do with such matters?

There was Ella Flag Young of Chicago, whom some men started out to oust from the school superintendency, and what a flare-back there was in the windy city until the gentlemen in question had been properly squelched and Ella Flag Young had been reinstated with all previous powers. Women vote in Illinois.

Then there was Mayor Mark Fagan, of Jersey City, the largest city in United States having commission government. Just lately he had to appoint an overseer of the poor, an office which corresponds to that of our local city relief officer, and Mayor Mark appointed Miss Anita Grish, a social worker of almost national prominence.

Then there came Mayor Purroy Mitchell, the man who has just emerged from the fight in which he administered the overwhelming defeat to Tammany and a very large part of the Republican machine combined in one of the most spectacular municipal fights of the decade. Mitchell appoints to the commission of charities and corrections the woman who made Bedford reformatory a real reclamation station for girls, Kate Bement Davis, and she is now on the job, which is one of the largest in the city's list.

There are others; many of them, hundreds of instances where, within the last few months, the women have found places in which it is well to see that mercy seasons justice, and there will be more for it is now coming to be recognized that there are other considerations besides this everlasting "business" in the handling of a city's affairs, and that when it comes to the human equation the most temperamental and sentimental woman in the world will give the Exhibit A, prize-package business man all the aces and the joker and still beat him to a frazzle.

FINISH IN SIGHT IN MEXICAN STRUGGLE.

By lifting the embargo upon the shipment of arms in Mexico, Wilson places an advantage in the hands of the constitutionalists, or rebels, which will in all probability lead very quickly to the downfall of the Huerta regime.

At the present time all the border Mexican states are in the hands of the rebels. With the embargo, whatever arms they managed to get in were smuggled. Huerta, with the border occupied, had no opportunity to ship in arms overland, but he was recognized as a government and his ports were open, making it possible for him to get firearms where the constitutionalists could get none.

The finish of the Mexican fight will, in all probability, be more sanguinary than ever; but the finish is in sight.

CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK CHILDREN NEED "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

A coated tongue means sluggish liver and bowels—
 Listen mother!

Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath hot, throat sore, doesn't sleep, or act naturally, has sour stomach, diarrhoea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given. Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills. Give a teaspoonful or in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food, clogged in the bowels, passes out of the system and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless fruit laxative and it never fails to effect a good "bowel" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on each bottle.

Mother, keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, and gets the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Then look after the little "California" baby. "California Syrup of Figs." We make no cheaper sale. Don't be fooled.

FIRST THINGS

Episcopal Bishops.

The first bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church were William White, for Pennsylvania, and Samuel Provoost, for New York, who were consecrated by the Archbishop of Canterbury at Lambeth Church, 27 years ago today, February 4, 1787. The consecration was especially authorized by the British Parliament. Samuel Provoost had been bishop of Connecticut a few years before, but he received consecration from the Scotch bishops. Before augmenting the statutory requirement of an oath of royal allegiance as a prerequisite to the consecration in England, the British Parliament and the Archbishop of Canterbury had received assurances that the Scotch church neither desired nor intended to "depart from the Church of England in any essential point of doctrine, discipline or worship, or farther than local circumstances require." Three years after the induction of Bishop White and Provoost, James Madison was consecrated at Lambeth for Virginia, and the Anglican line of succession was canonically established in the United States.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Hon. Thomas Taylor, minister of public works and railways for British Columbia, and one of Sir Richard Mitchell's strongest supporters, is forty-six today. He is a native of London, Ontario, and was one of the leading men of the west, and is a native-born Canadian. He was at one time a youth to become a lawyer, but never completed his course. When the American West opened up, he volunteered and went as far as Winnipeg, where he settled down and engaged in mercantile life. He was later pushed on to British Columbia and took up his residence in the mining town of Kamloops, where he conducted a general store for ten years. He then removed to Revelstoke, continuing his business there. He has since been a member of the legislature since 1909.

Riechpen, French "Immortal."

65 Today, Francis T. Riechpen, one of the most celebrated experts of the tongue, which has been frowned upon by so many eminent men, has forty friends in high places. He is the son of a Frenchman, and was born in the town of Riechpen, in the French province of the Academie Française, and famous the world over for his poetry, novels and dramas. A few months ago Riechpen, in an address before the five academies of the Institute of Letters, which he had just received, traced its origin to remote antiquity. He declared that it was the highest form of expression of the rhythmic movement which all the world calls the dance.

The story of Riechpen's life abounds in incidents more thrilling than any in his novels. He was born in Metz, where, sixty-five years ago today, he was the son of an army surgeon. He studied medicine in Paris, but abandoned that profession and became a dramatist. During the Franco-Prussian war he was editor of L'Éclair. Later he returned to Paris and made a name for himself as a writer of "Jules Verne" and a drama, "Hélène." In 1876 he wrote "Chanson des Gueux," which he dedicated to him in term in prison and a brave fight.

After his release from jail Riechpen temporarily abandoned literature for the sea, serving as a common sailor. He soon wearied of this, and, back in Paris, became editor of L'Éclair, and devoted himself entirely to literature. He published a collection of short stories, "Les Morts Vivants," which he had written while a convict. "Les Histoires," a volume of verse, followed, and then came several novels, well reflecting the realistic or naturalistic spirit, which won for his author the honor of election to the Academy of Immortals.

In his literary work M. Riechpen has disregarded all the considerations of religion, moral, social and literary, and has written with a boldness that has at times shocked even France. In his ending the tango he said: "The graceful, stately dances of long ago which the mortals would like to see today all had as lowly an origin as the tango. All had been born birth. All are the ancient people's 'dances' invented by country bumpkins, even the suave minuet, which was first a country jig in Boston, and then came several novels, well reflecting the realistic or naturalistic spirit, which won for his author the honor of election to the Academy of Immortals."

George Brandes, the great Danish-Jewish man of letters, was born in Copenhagen seventy-two years ago today. During his long literary career he has lived in France, Italy, England, Germany, Poland and Russia, as well as in his native Denmark, and has written nearly two scores of volumes of literature, criticism and history. Last October Prof. Brandes was refused permission to visit Russia again on account of his Jewish parentage.

TODAY WE CELEBRATE

Century of Congress of Chatham and France.

One hundred years ago today, Feb. 4, 1814, a congress was opened at Chatham, on the Seine in France, at which the representatives of England, Prussia, Russia and Austria met to discuss the terms of peace with Napoleon. The negotiations, which continued until the nineteenth of March, varied according to the success or failure of the armies in the field. Napoleon had reached a point where he would gladly have accepted the terms offered in 1813, but the allies refused to renew that proposal. They desired that France must cede to her limits of 1789. "What?" cried Napoleon, "leave France smaller than I found her? Never!" he roared, and fought on against tremendous odds.

At the Chatham congress Napoleon represented the French empire against the imperial master in the field, shut off from quick communication, and with the allies steadily closing in upon Paris. Caulaincourt played from the first a losing game. A man of no great ability, he was noted against such diplomats as Metternich, representing Austria; Castlereagh, representing England; Stein and Wollner, representing Prussia; and the German states and Russia, represented by Alexander of Russia, although not in attendance. At the congress, when the allies were noted against such diplomats as Metternich, representing Austria; Castlereagh, representing England; Stein and Wollner, representing Prussia; and the German states and Russia, represented by Alexander of Russia, although not in attendance. At the congress, when the allies were noted against such diplomats as Metternich, representing Austria; Castlereagh, representing England; Stein and Wollner, representing Prussia; and the German states and Russia, represented by Alexander of Russia, although not in attendance.

From the battlefield Napoleon sent contradictory messages to his agent, Caulaincourt. He was told to insist, and instructed Caulaincourt to remain firm. Then, when the faithful Caulaincourt of France again began to close in on him with deadly and ferocious precision, he frantically appealed to Caulaincourt to obtain peace at any price. The terms of the allies grew more exacting as their armies penetrated further into the heart of France. Alexander of Russia, although not in attendance at the congress, was noted against such diplomats as Metternich, representing Austria; Castlereagh, representing England; Stein and Wollner, representing Prussia; and the German states and Russia, represented by Alexander of Russia, although not in attendance. At the congress, when the allies were noted against such diplomats as Metternich, representing Austria; Castlereagh, representing England; Stein and Wollner, representing Prussia; and the German states and Russia, represented by Alexander of Russia, although not in attendance.

The congress at Chatham was bitterly opposed in England, Germany and Russia, where the great masses of the people stood for the utter overthrow of Napoleon. Riechpen reflected their sentiment in his novel, published while the plenipotentiaries were assembling at Chatham, and which began:

"Who dares peace at this momentous hour?"

"When God hath given deliverance to the oppressed,"

"And to the injured power?"

"Who counsels peace, when vengeance lies a flood."

Bolls on, no longer now to be reproached."

"From the four corners of the world cries out."

"For justice upon an accused head."

"When freedom hath her holy banner spread."

"Over all nations, now in one just cause united."

Sir John Jackson, the famous English contractor, who has built scores of great public works in all parts of the world, was born at York sixty-three years ago today. Two years ago he began work on a gigantic irrigation system in Mesopotamia, which is expected to make that ancient land once more the granary of the world. He was also interested in the Manchester ship canal, and built the railway across the Andes in South America from Arica, on the Pacific, to the capital of the "hermit republic" of Bolivia.

It looks like the passing of "Billy" Nicholson in goal for the Wanderers. Art Ross is taking leave at the present position, and if he makes good "Willie" will likely be given the go-by.

TODAY IN DOMINION HISTORY.

Major-General Sir Isaac Brock, Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada, delivered his famous address to the legislature of the province 102 years ago today. The outbreak of the war between Great Britain and the United States was still four months in the future, but Brock, with prophetic vision, realized that the struggle was imminent and certain. The man who was to be the hero of the conflict, and to give up his life to the British cause before the year had passed, said:

"England is not only interdicted the harbors of the United States which they afford a shelter to enemies of her inveterate enemy, but she is likewise compelled to resign those harbors and the waters which have so long encircled and enjoyed. Invading fleets are offered and hostile preparations actually commenced; and therefore, without hope that cool reflection and the dictates of justice may yet avert the calamities of war, I repeat to you in recommending to your early attention the adoption of such measures as will best secure the internal peace of the country and defeat every hostile aggression."

Brock's stirring address, in which he declared that Great Britain would stand by Canada to her last man and her last gun, did much to allay in the minds of the people the fear of the country to present a united front to the enemy when war was declared.

February 4 is the anniversary of the Niagara tragedy of 1912, when three people were swept to death on an ice bridge which broke from its moorings and passed down the river. On this date in 1875 a new Canadian reciprocity treaty was rejected by the United States Senate.

Orilla Juniors made a big bid in Cleveland. They only lost by a score of 3 to 2, and the Cleveland newspapers give credit with being the best team seen here this season.

How to Shed a Rough, Chapped or Blotchy Skin

(From Beauty's Mirror.)
This is what you should do to shed a bad complexion: Spread evenly over the face, covering every inch of skin, a thin layer of ordinary mercurized wax. Let this stay on overnight, washing it off next morning. Repeat daily until your complexion is as clear, soft and beautiful as a young girl's. This result is inevitable, no matter how sallow or withered the complexion. The wax literally absorbs the filthy surface, exposing the lovely young skin beneath. The process is entirely harmless, no little of the old skin coming off at a time. Mercurized wax is obtainable at any drugstore; one ounce usually suffices. It's a veritable wonder-worker for rough, chapped, reddened, blotchy, pimpled, freckled, or sallow skin. Pure powdered nixalite is excellent for a wrinkled skin. At once it is dissolved in a half-pint with hazel nut as a refreshing wash-lotion. This renders the skin quite firm and smooth; indeed, the very first application erases the finer lines; the deeper ones soon follow.

FAMOUS ACTRESS IN PICTURE SUCCESS AT BIJOU THEATRE

One of the greatest picture successes played on the continent is the special offering at the Bijou photo-play house for today and tomorrow. It not only develops a most charming theme, but the leading character part is interpreted by Broadway's brilliant star, Miss Maude Fealy, and now recognized as a motion picture actress that applies the highest of her art. Miss Fealy played with Sir Henry Irving and starred with the late Richard Mansfield, the greatest actor of his day on the North American continent.

The Thanshouer company, whose reputation stands admittedly high has exclusively engaged the services of Miss Fealy and intend to use her in their best productions of which "Frou Frou" is the first.

The picture is in four parts and has been made from Augustus Daly's version of Mr. Ibsen's play, the great drama for some time and made one of his most brilliant successes with the play.

Some idea of the excellence of "Frou Frou" can be gathered from the fact that it has been produced by the Thanshouer company, who have recently won the picture.

Maude Fealy, who takes the leading role, is a woman of great intellect and a feminine as Fealy; yet there is a fairy like touch of unhumanity, which is not inhumanity about her and if she doesn't take up the duties and obligations of human life, she's charming and that means a great deal.

The picture is full of things that will appeal strongly. It is an offering that renders the immediate appeal of all the best drama is intended to.

"Frou Frou" is one of the highest of the Bijou management from a literary artistic standpoint and although it has been usually shown at increased prices of admission the regular prices only will be charged.

LONDON PREPARING FOR SUMMER SEASON

Lord Curzon's Second Daughter to be Presented to Society.

An interesting indication that the summer season of 1914 is likely to be busy is seen in the warnings of house agents to their clients that they had better make reservations immediately if they wish to secure desirable places. A fashionable peeress has been warned that she must take up her usual house at Ascot for the race week immediately as it is impossible to face the heavy demands for the place and retain it for more than a few days.

Lady Irene, second daughter of Lord Curzon and the late Lady Curzon, formerly Mary Leiter of Chicago, will make her first appearance in society at Lord and Lady Desborough's ball at Taplow Court. Her father will clothe her.

WHAT IS THE USE? What is the use of trimming a lamp if you never intend to light it? What is the use of removing your hat if you never intend to share it? What is the use of wearing a maid if you never intend to marry? What is the use of buying a coat if you never intend to wear it? What is the use of a house for two if you never intend to share it? What is the use of gathering gold if you never intend to keep it? What is the use of planning a field if you never intend to reap it? What is the use of buying a book if you never intend to read it? What is the use of a cradle to rock if you never intend to need it?

Bernhardt is Being Showered With Roses.

Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt has received so many invitations to banquets and receptions to celebrate her decoration with the cross of the Legion of Honour that she writes that it is impossible for her to accept of all of them.

As she is unwilling to eliminate, she prefers to be excused from all.

DOMINIONS AND ESKIMOS SHOULD FURNISH SPECTACULAR GAME TONIGHT

Is First of Brackman-Ker Series and Should be a Battle From Start to Finish—Eskimos May Spring Surprise and Win.

A series of hockey games that is looked forward to with great interest every winter is the Brackman-Ker cup game. The first game of the series for 1914 will be played tonight at the Arena, between the Eskimos and Dominions as contenders. A nice dish of hockey could not be served up to the local fans, and judging from the way the tickets are selling, it would appear that nearly every hockey fan in the city is going to witness the game, which is sure to be a dandy.

Look at it any way you like, and you couldn't frame up a nicer contest if you were doing it for yourself, now could you? Two evenly matched teams, a big rink and hard ice—what more could you want? Now, here is something, just on the side. The Dominions are scared. Yes, that's the word—scared.

They've won the inter-city title and a lot of popularity along with it, and you know, it would be a shame for the Eskimos to come and take it away from the three—now wouldn't it?

But you see, the "Blonde" Eskimo, journeyed to Calgary and trimmed the Chinks on their own ice, and that's more than the mighty Dominions managed to do.

So don't you understand the Dominions' feelings?

Now, look back at the performance of these two teams at their last meeting. The Dominions worked like demons during the first half, and ran up seven goals against their husky opponents, and that was all they got. It was Eskimos all the way in the second period of play. And take it from us, Charlie Reid had an "elf night" at that game, or the green and white would never have jumped him the way they did. So don't be surprised to see the old-time Eskimos do a "come-back."

The big game is billed for 8:30, and Harold Deaton will carry the "ding-dong." The Dominions are out to win, as they do not want to have any more defeats registered against them before journeying east for the Allan cup. Tickets are on sale at Dechene & McNeill's tobacco store, Jasper east, and through the regular rink. Teams will line up as follows:

Eskimos	Dominions
Reid	Goal
Point	Sutherland
Duncan	Stevenson
Lynne	Rever
N. Sutherland	Managers

NEW WESTMINSTER SPRINGS-SURPRISE— BEATS VANCOUVER

New Westminster, Feb. 4.—Van-couver's championship aspirations received a further setback last night when the Westminster team went away in the lead and finished on the long end of a 3 to 2 score. The Vancouver team were never in the running, being completely outplayed by the former champions. Vancouver looked aggressive and fast in goal, had an off night in the net.

Robin Hood's Debt Roulau
Monte Carlo, Feb. 4.—The smallest crowd of the season watched the two last ends in the Southern division of the S. A. U. A. perform here last night. The Robin Hood's winning from Hou-leau by a score of 4 to 1 in a game of hockey which was only a fair exhibition.

"PRO" HOCKEY TEAMS COMING

As stated in the Capital yesterday Edmonton is to have the opportunity of seeing some professional hockey here this winter. There will be two exhibition games played at the Arena rink between two of the Pacific Coast "Pro" teams.

The team that wins the Coast League will remain there to defend the Stanley Cup against invading eastern teams, and the other two teams will make an eastern tour, playing exhibition games. The exact date of their visit here is not yet known, but as soon as the "pro" league at the Coast is wound up the dates will soon be arranged.

REGINA VICTORIES LOSE TO MOOSE JAW

League Leaders Were Outplayed—Score was 4 to 3.

Game May Be Protested to Claim Alleged Score.

Regina, Feb. 4.—The league leading Victorians were outplayed by the Moose of Moose Jaw last evening at the Amphitheatre, and lost in close and fast game of hockey by the score of 4 to 3. The visitors showed improved form over previous appearances on local ice, and the excellent brand of hockey that they uncorked was a surprise to the 1,500 fans that witnessed the contest. Kent and Buncher were the stars of the game and were responsible in a great measure for the defeat of the home team. Ellis, in the nets for the visitors, played a spectacular game. He was called upon to make many hard saves, blocking all but three. The Vics played hard and fast, but were outplayed. A determined effort to turn the last period of play pulled them up to within one point of a tie, but clever work by Ellis prevented another score.

Hammond, Abbott and Oughton played clever hockey for the Vics. There were only two penalties handed out during the entire contest. Ellis, Moose goalkeeper, and Mulisky, Vics' little centre, were sent to the boards for two minutes for fighting. During the scrap, which took place in front of the Moose goal, the puck was slipped in, but the score was not allowed, the umpire declaring he had rung his bell for an offside. The Victorians' management will probably protest the game on the grounds that the umpire did not ring his bell until after the puck had been netted. The officials were:

Umpire, Van Valkenburg, Regina; Judge of play, Blaisell, Moose Jaw.

Medicine Hat Beats Redcliff
Medicine Hat, Feb. 4.—Medicine Hat defeated Redcliff 13 to 6 last night in a fast game. The locals have but to defeat Redcliff in one more game to finish the district. So far they are undefeated.

"GUNBOAT" SMITH
LIKES EDMONTON

Yes, even the fighters have faith in Edmonton. "Gunboat" Smith, white heavyweight champion of the world, appearing at Pantheas this week, stated yesterday that he expected to purchase a couple of lots in the city and watch his bank account grow. "Gunboat" is surely a wise old owl, and knows a good thing when he sees it. "Yes, I know," said "Gunboat," a lot of people think I'm not the real "Gunboat," and that I'm just some big strong guy they have got to go on the stage." They thought the same thing in Saskatoon ... but I should worry.

"A great many people," he continued, "go to the show, expecting to see me wallop the head off some guy, but that sparring partner of mine can teach me something about the game, and instead of having someone to pound about the stage I'm always learning something from him." "I'm young in the game yet," he concluded, "I'm still a comer." The Gunner stated that it was quite probable that he would meet Jess Willard on the 4th of July next.

Edmonton Bouspiel
The tenth annual event, commencing Tuesday, Feb. 10th—Four big open events, also visitors, consolation, points competition, grand aggregate and hard luck prize. Nineteen sheets good ice. Housed on the certificate plan.

The first draw in the first two events will be made at 8 o'clock on the evening of Monday, Feb. 26. All risks entering for the hospital to be sent to the secretary before that time.

The hospital committee state that the Edmonton hospital this year will be the biggest affair of its kind ever staged in the province. The complete list of prizes and events will be published in this paper tomorrow. The hospital committee have opened their headquarters at 123 Jasper West, where any information may be secured.

Wrestling Title
Winnipeg, Feb. 4.—Walter Miller, of St. Paul, sustained his title of welter weight wrestling champion of the world here last night, when he tossed Otto Suter, of Cleveland, in two straight falls. Miller showed the class for most of the way and gained the first fall after one hour and 40 minutes of grueling work.

Timers, too, had punk luck with some of their shots, but this team has developed their combination work to a science and are now in a position to clean up the senior league, and would give any team in the province a hard game. It is expected that Calgary will be up with a team before long.

Big Money at Pigeon Shoot
Monte Carlo, Feb. 4.—Van Vleck, of the Toronto Gun club, and Tyson of the Cleveland U. S. A. Gun club were meeting here and keenly contested for the possession of the Pigeon Shoot gold medal. Ten rounds reduced 127 entrants to six. After the twentieth round only Tyson and Van Vleck were left. In the twenty-fourth round Van Vleck had an impossible bird and Tyson killing an easy bird won the gold medal. The first four competitors divided the stakes each receiving a little more than $700 each.

OLD TIMERS HAND ALBERTA THEOLOGS A BAD TRIMMING

CALGARY WILL PLAY HERE—LOCALS WORKING GOOD

Every Player on "Y" Team Scored One or More Baskets.

In an exhibition basketball game last night at the Y.M.C.A. the Theologs of Alberta College lost to the Old Timers by the very one-sided score of 27 to 7. The game was not as one-sided as the score indicates, and although the "ministers" were totally outplayed at all stages of the game, they put up a game fight and were dangerous at all times. They also had very poor luck in their shots, the ball rolling around, over, above, and under the basket, without going in.

Timers, too, had punk luck with some of their shots, but this team has developed their combination work to a science and are now in a position to clean up the senior league, and would give any team in the province a hard game. It is expected that Calgary will be up with a team before long.

You Need a Tuxedo

Every man needs a Tuxedo suit—the happy medium between ultra-formal evening clothes and the work-a-day sack.

It fills in gaps on social occasions that otherwise would be missed—because of a lack of clothes more suitable than a sack suit and yet without the strictness of silk-hatted full dress.

We will make your Tuxedo suit at a price that perhaps you did not dream possible—and it will have all the fineness and style that distinguish perfect dress garments.

WORLD MOVING TO ITS NEW HOME IN NORTH COUNTRY

J. K. Cornwall Inquired With Letters of Enquiry About Peace River.

EXPECTS RECORD TREK THERE DURING THE YEAR

All Settlers Now Want in Their Eden is Railway Communication.

The world is moving, and the new home it is moving into is the Peace River country. That is probably the richest and most effective way to describe the trek which is undoubtedly taking to start to the much-talked-of, always-bewildered, but now, however, north and west of Edmonton. If one meets railway officials, provincial and city publicity commissioners, bankers, real estate men, wheelers, settlers, in fact, almost anybody who is anybody, and especially anyone who has ambition to be somebody in the future, one cannot but be struck by the almost unanimous opinion they give: "Peace River."

J. K. Cornwall, who is well known and who will know the North Country, says that the country will get 10,000 settlers this year. Mr. Cornwall cannot be said to be in the habit of over-stating things, although he is a booster, and his estimate is probably very near the mark. He is estimating from the number of letters of enquiry which reach him. Oh, yes, letters about the Peace River district, come to him in bundles, although he no longer has even time to be an M.P. for it.

From All Over Canada, "I am sitting up nights," he said to a Capital reporter yesterday, "writing personal letters to people from every conceivable place in America. These two are going to a couple of fellows in Montana."

About how many white people are in the country now? he was asked. "Oh, about 10,000, and judging from the letters I receive and what I hear on every hand, there will be about that many actually go into the country this year."

Charles S. Hotchkiss, provincial publicity commissioner, when asked if many enquiries came in about the Peace River country, said:

"Humph! about 75 per cent. of the letters that come to this office. Where here one I'm just answering now, where there are 12 enquiries in one, and they're all from Montana. So you see the climate don't seem to bother them the way they used to think it did. Every single man that comes into my office from the Peace River country wants a railway. That is the one thing they need to enjoy perfect prosperity."

Sciatica Vanishes Instantly If Nerve Line Is Used CAN YOU BEAT THIS CASE?

No ordinary liniment will even remove Sciatica. Nothing but the most potent of the tissues and finally reach the Sciatic Nerve. You can always depend on the old-time "Nerve Line." Nothing made today is as good for Sciatica as Nerve Line was when first produced, about forty years ago. All this time the same old "Nerve Line" has been curing Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, and is considered to be without an equal in relieving pain or soreness anywhere. "Nerve Line" wouldn't be made stronger or better," writes James E. Edwards. "The way it cures Sciatica is to me simply a miracle. For years I suffered frightfully. I ruined my stomach with internal dosing. I rubbed in gallons of oils and liniments—most were worse than enough. One good rubbing with Nerve Line relieved. I kept on rubbing and shortly was cured. My father, who had rheumatism in his right arm and shoulder with Nerve Line, and he has been cured. Our family simply swears by Nerve Line and we are never without a tube of the family balsam in our home. We find that for external pain, for coughs, colds, earache, chest minor ills it is a veritable family physician."

perity and bring the human race back to the days you read about in the Garden of Eden. Most of them don't appreciate the fact, however, that the Alberta government is stimulating railway building to boost parts and that the rails will soon be there, and away back in the Peace Coasts district. He is estimating from the number of letters of enquiry which reach him. Oh, yes, letters about the Peace River district, come to him in bundles, although he no longer has even time to be an M.P. for it.
